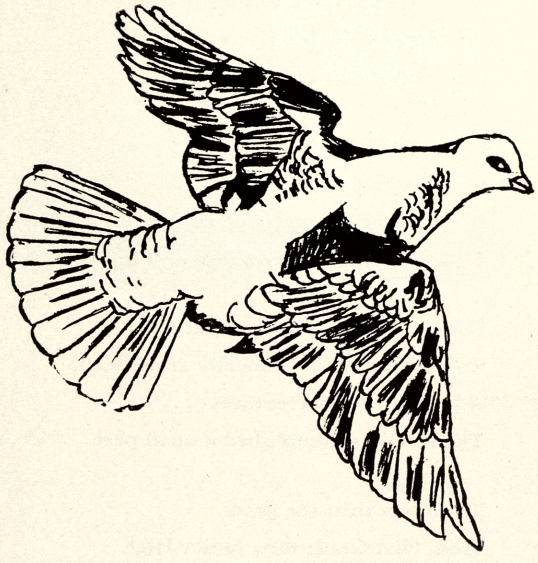
OUR JOURNALISM CLASS

PRESENTS

Your 1953 Comet



MEANING OF THE COVER

The dove brings the hope of peace
That war and strife will forever cease!
Peace, the word on everyone's lips,
Thinking of our boys where the cold war nips.
Faith that our hearts may never lose,
Watching, waiting . . . for the news.

Then across the air it comes at last
Peace! Peace at last!

★ ★ ★

The hands on the cover indicate
That boys and girls for peace now wait.

PEACE

PEACE is the word
That expresses our theme
It is the one that's universal
Our Hope—our priceless Dream!

If we can be instrumental
In spreading thoughts of love,
If we can urge prayers of Peace
To be heard by Him above—

If we can hold one great purpose
To promote Unity—Loyalty at the start,
A Feeling of Togetherness . . .
Then we've accomplished a small part.

To follow thru the years
From First Grade thru Junior High
Bonds, Friendships that are for "Keeps."
Perhaps you wonder why.

You come to pay a visit,
You stroll along the hall,
You see familiar faces,
Perhaps you're not recognized at all.

Yet in each mind your image
Will linger for many a day . . .
What a grownup . . . fine appearance
Prvoes your success in every way.

No matter if we "know" you
We're glad to see you come.
It proves your love for Webber!
We wonder where you're from . . .

To express our feelings for you
This book we dedicate;
To honor ALUMNI in SERVICE
With us you surely RATE!

When you are in strange lands and lonesome,
When your heartaches do not cease,
Just KNOW that we're thinking of you
For we've dedicated this Comet to PEACE!

The plaque above shows that history is involved.
It takes time and brains to keep school "problems" solved.
Our Superintendents, our Principals, our School Board does this
When it comes to important things there isn't much that they miss.

Look over the pictures of the FACULTY here
We've had many changes from year to year.
Our "Veterans" comment, "How the time does fly!"
This is the sentiment for which we all try:
To build up Webber in behavior and scholastics
(Means using a general's ingenuity and tactics.)
You know what we mean ,we can't fool you
For you remember Webber and what you went through!

ODDS AND ENDS

In this book we've tried to please,
If you don't believe us, take a look at these:
New students, "old" students who weren't in school the day
Our pictures were taken in the regular individual way.

To take care of all these people are what these secretaries do
From the Kindergarten to the Teachers — their duties are not few,
Bulletins, announcements, records, supplies to make things run,
Gracious personalities always, one would think their work was fun,
But to check daily attendance, record marks and such as these
Must be very tedious, yet they always try to please.

Mrs. Hazel Constantine

When they need guidance in following directions
It's to these teachers they turn:
Mrs. Lindbergh in sewing,
Miss Basmadjian in Foods to plan
Mr. Jungerheld in Metal,
In Wood, Mr. Miller is the man.

Taffy apples, cream puffs and luscious looking eats,
Were what these girls were making,

HALLOWE'EN

Let's give credit to the Student Council for we must confess

That their planning made this party a real success!

HALLOWEEN

To identify these masqueraders,
Is what we tried to do,
We found it an impossibility,
We'll have to leave this up to you!

SPECIAL THANKS TO MISS MURPHY

There's room in this space to pay tribute that is due
To one who has never failed to help — who has always come thru

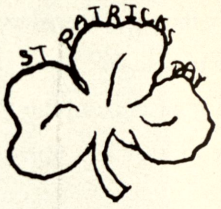
With Red Cross posters, favors by the score
Besides all of our beautiful scenery and other items galore.

SPECIAL THANKS TO MRS. THOMAS

Our advertising campaign was successfully done
Thanks to Mrs. Thomas it was efficiently run,
She inspired enthusiasm right from the start.
We must say for her, "She's done her part."

AUDITORIUM

To teach Auditorium down under the stage
Sounds like a fairy story but it proves the old adage
"Where there's a will there's a way" is what Mr. Wilson would choose.
Giving plays, announcements, tape recordings, to the weekly radio news.



TOP ROW LEFT TO RIGHT — George Kostick, Bill Schultz, John Razcok, Jerry Claus, Bob Kartz, John Lazier.

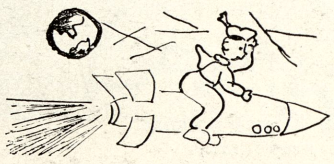
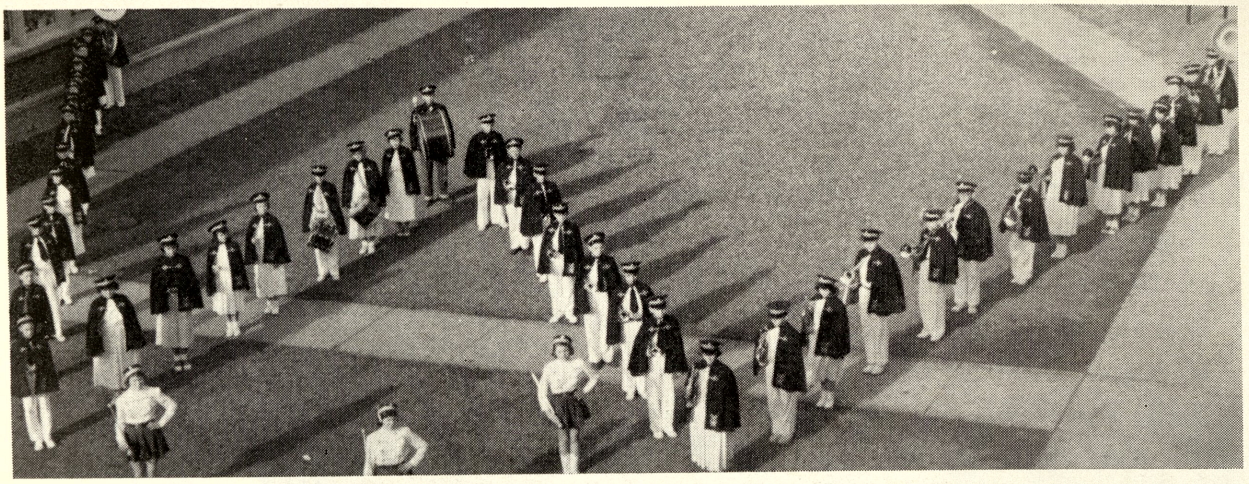
ON THEIR WAY TO HOLLYWOOD



Mr. Wilson's Auditorium class carries on The Band Boost.



To see our Band in formation
Is really a great sight,
To hear their drums, see them marching,
Fills us with pride and delight.

These are "before and after" pictures of our CLOWN BAND —
A big hit in our Band Boost — let's give them a hand!

MR. ALLEN TAKES OVER TYPING

Coming in 'new' last Fall,
He knew no one at all,
Now that it's Spring
His highest praises we bring.
Always giving us a hand
We think he's just grand!

AT THE TOP OF THE TOP

At the time this was taken
These four girls led the race,
That is, when it came to typing,
They set the pace.

Herbie and Gerry (most all) we must say,
Ran off these papers — got them out the right day.

1.

To give you a built-up feeling from your suit to butch-cut hair,
The ring of the bat when the ball is hit,
The thump that it makes in the catcher's mitt
We have no Babe Ruths, but we have our Coach Mac

Without these ADVERTISERS . . . we all agree

That this Comet for publishing JUST WOULDN'T BE!

We've slaved over this . . . broke out in a rash!

But THEY are the ones who put up the . . . (You know . . . Huh?) . . . the CASH

WERKEMA'S PICTURES are LIFESAVERS, too!

Without such good friends and cooperation

JUST WHAT WOULD WE DO?

To identify again . . . it just wouldn't do
'Cause you've seen them before . . . (If you've looked this book thru) (???)
They've not only 'slaved' . . . but PAID for this ad!
Which shows that . . . after all . . . they aren't so 'bad'!
They've had lots of fun, made lots of mistakes . . .
But 'after all's said and done,' they 'have what it takes'!

Some tugs of heartstrings to keep in mind
That Webber Faculty and Students true
Have loyalty and sentiment to extend to you.
